DSI International, Inc.
eXpress Users Group

September 16, 2016
JT Schmid's (Anaheim CA)

You are cordially invited to attend the DSI International 2016 eXpress Users Group (EUG), to be held in the Main Conference Room at:

JT Schmid's Restaurant & Brewery in Anaheim, CA.

Friday, September 16, 2016.
Conference: 8:00AM – 12:30 PM

Who Should Attend: The EUG is a forum for those in industry or academia that are involved in advanced Diagnostics, Reliability, Maintainability, Testability, Prognostics, Vehicle Health Management, Systems Engineering along with any eXpress stakeholders.

History of Value: The EUG has been increasingly heralded as a valuable event providing a personal opportunity to meet and discuss evolving development and sustainment methodologies, ideas, lessons learned and success stories encountered along the road to developing affordable and sustainable solutions for complex designs. You are provided an open forum/opportunity to suggest future development possibilities and considerations.
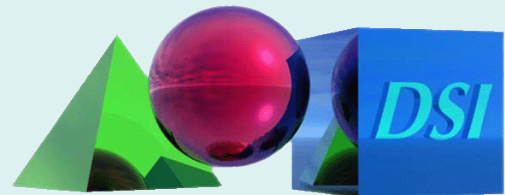

Focus: Attention to applications involving "real" programs within industry. Comments are encouraged and collectively discussed among leading industry experts from around the world.

Showcasing: You won't want to miss what's new and what's forthcoming in the releases of eXpress, DSI Workbench and RTAT !!

Companion Event: Autotestcon (Sept. 13-15, 2016: Tuesday through Thursday) at the Disneyland Hotel in Anaheim, CA. Visit DSI and other industry leaders at the popular Autotestcon (Only 3 miles away on Katella Ave.) and cap it off on Friday at our "EUG 2016" !
